

Language and Social Justice

CSLS Ringvorlesung - Autumn 2021

-
- 22 Sep EREZ LEVON Universität Bern
Inequality and injustice: Why language matters
- 29 Sep SABINE CHRISTOPHER Osservatorio linguistico della Svizzera italiana Italian in Switzerland: A language vitality approach to a "luxury" minority
- 06 Oct JOAN PUJOLAR COS Universitat Oberta de Catalunya
The linguistic subject: Sociolinguistic subalternity in intersectionality debates
- 13 Oct JULIA SNELL University of Leeds
Beliefs about language, classroom interaction and inequality in schools
- 20 Oct MARIA ROSA GARRIDO SARDÀ Université de Lausanne
Multilingualism, access and participation in a social movement against injustice
- 27 Oct KATRIJN MARYNS Universiteit Gent
Mediated discourse in asylum and migration encounters: Language as a vulnerable resource when issues of deservingness are at stake
- 03 Nov NATALIE SCHILLING Georgetown University
Forensic linguistics: Working with legal professionals, law enforcement, incarcerated persons and others to promote legal justice
- 10 Nov SABINE SCZESNY Universität Bern
The impact of gendered language on cognition
- 17 Nov SARI PIETIKÄINEN Jyväskylän yliopisto
Disturbing boundaries: Powers of assemblage
- 24 Nov RICKARD JONSSON Stockholms Universitet
Humor, affect and social order: On the interactional intricacies of podcast rape humor
- 01 Dec CHRISTOPHER STROUD University of the Western Cape
Talk beyond social justice: Linguistic citizenship in 'care', 'hope' and 'love'
- 08 Dec ALEXANDRE DUCHÊNE Université de Fribourg/Universität Freiburg
Discomfort: Social justice in sociolinguistics and its shortcomings
- 15 Dec LOVIS HOPPMANN Universität Zürich
Die deutsche Sprache queeren
Recipient of 2021 CSLS Language and Social Justice Prize

Wednesdays, 16:15 – 18:00, Unitobler F-023

www.csls.unibe.ch @CSLS_UniBern

CSLS Center for the Study of Language and Society

u^b
UNIVERSITÄT
BERN