

PUBLIC LECTURE

The University of Bern's Faculty of Humanities and Interdisciplinary Centre for Gender Studies present the 2020 honorary doctorate recipient.

ANNE FAUSTO -STERLING

On Thursday 19 May 2022, Professor Fausto-Sterling will give a public lecture titled 'Feminist approaches to science and medicine: what are they and why do they matter?' The lecture will start at 18:15 in the UniS Hörsaal followed by a short apéro. The UNiS building is at Schanzeneckstrasse 1. For latest updates on the university's Covid regulations, please see www.unibe.ch/coronavirus/.

Prof. Dr. Anne Fausto-Sterling is the Nancy Duke Lewis Professor Emerita of Biology and Gender Studies in the Department of Molecular and Cell Biology and Biochemistry at Brown University, USA. She is also the founder and former director of the Science & Technology Studies Program at Brown. Her ground-breaking books include Sexing the Body: Gender Politics and the Construction of Sexuality (2000) and Sex/Gender: Biology in a Social World (2012).

u^b

UNIVERSITÄT
BERN